

WSC-NPoW Junior Learner Profile	Name:
---------------------------------	-------

I learn because...	< Just a Little
	Very Confident >
I am curious, and am willing to try something new and different.
I see value in learning and understand that we never stop learning.
I have a 'can do' attitude and will try even when things get difficult.
I can be imaginative and creative.
I can be logical and give reasons for the conclusions that I reach.
I question what I read and what I am told, and do not just accept things without thinking.
I can see connections between the different subjects I take.
I can see connections between what I learn at school and the world and community I live in.

I can manage myself because...	< Just a Little
	Very Confident >
I arrive on time to school and to lessons.
I bring the correct equipment for the day.
I don't let the fear of being wrong stop me, I am willing to take a chance and risk being wrong.
I think before I speak or act, and I listen carefully to instructions.
I remain calm and ask for help from the teacher or other students if a task seems too difficult.
I wait for my teacher's attention if they are busy helping other students.
I organise my time, and plan out the tasks I need to complete carefully.
I complete my homework and classwork to the best of my ability.
I can focus on my work and not be distracted by others.
I can work as part of a group, listen to others' ideas, and share my own ideas.
I join in class discussion and sometimes change my views because of what I hear.

I am reflective because:	< Just a Little
	Very Confident >
I learn from making mistakes.
I value feedback. I don't get angry or defensive when shown how I can improve.
I try to use what I have already learned when attempting new tasks.
I ask questions, and keep trying when things get difficult – then I ask the teacher.
I think about my own learning, why some things work and others do not.
When I find the answers I am looking for, I also find new questions I want to ask.
I set challenging goals which I know are achievable.

I connect with other learners because...	< Just a Little
	Very Confident >
I listen respectfully, but can also express my disagreement respectfully.
I do my best to offer or receive help when it is needed.
I realise that the things I learn about in class affect different people in different ways.
I understand the value of my contribution to a multi-cultural and multi-faith Aotearoa.
I understand the importance of having a knowledge of Te Reo and Tikanga Maori.
I understand how what I learn will help to build a more just and sustainable society.

With your Whanau or Form Tutor:

- 1) Near the start of Term 2, use a coloured pencil to shade in the boxes on the grid to show how confident you are in each area.
- 2) Near the start of Term 3 use a different colour to show the progress you made.
- 3) Near the end of Term 4 use another colour to do the same thing.

WSC Mission Statement

All students and staff, inspired by a love of learning, are challenged to discover and develop their unique personal strengths so that they are well equipped to share in the building of a just and sustainable society.
